GEORGE R.

GEORGE the Second, by the Grace of God, King of Great Britain, France and Ireland, Defender of the faith, &c. To all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting, Whereas William Owen of Fleet-Street, in Our City of London, Bookseller, has, by his Petition, humbly represented unto Us, That he has, with great Care and Labour, and at a considerable Expence, compil'd for the Press, *A genuine and authentic Account of all the Fairs in England and Wales, as they have, since the Alteration of the Stile, been settled to be held; and that particular mention is made therein of all Commodities, which each of the said Fairs is remarkable for furnishing; And that, as the said Work will undoubtedly be useful to the Public in general, and more especially to Travellers, and the Petitioner has been at great Trouble and Expence in preparing and compiling the same, he therefore humbly prays Us to grant to him, and his Assigns, Our Royal Licence and Permission for the sole Printing and Publishing the same, according to the Statute in that Case made and provided; We being willing to give all due Encouragement to a Work of this Nature, which may be of public Use and Benefit, are graciously pleased to condescend to his Request; and we do therefore, by these Presents, so far as may be agreeable to the Statute in that Behalf, grant unto him the said William Owen, his Heirs, Executors, and Assigns, our Royal Privilege and Licence, for the sole Printing, Publishing and Vending the said Work, strictly forbidding and prohibiting all Our Subjects, within Our Kingdoms and Dominions, to reprint, abridge or translate the same, either in the like, or any other Volume or Volumes whatsoever; or to import, buy, vend, utter, or distribute any Copies thereof, reprinted beyond the Seas, without the Consent and Approbation of him the said William Owen, his Heirs, Executors, or Assigns, by Writing under his or their Hands and Seals first had and obtained, as they and every of them will answer the Contrary at their Peril, whereof the Commissioners and other Officers of our Customs, the Master, Wardens and Company of Stationers of Our City of London, and all other Our Officers and Ministers whom it may concern, are to take Notice that due Obedience be rendered to our Pleasure herein signified.*

Given at Our Court of St. James's.

To the PUBLIC.

THE Compiler of this BOOK of FAIRS hath spared no Trouble nor Expencc to render it entirely correct throughout; and can assure the Public, This is the most Authentic LIST that has ever appeared in Print:—But, as notwithstanding the utmost Care, some Error may, perhaps, still be found, he takes this Method to request all Governors and Proprietors of FAIRS, and all others, who have any Concern therein, to favour him with such Corrections or Additions, (directed to W. OWEN, between the Temple-Gates, Fleet-Street) as they may find necessary, and have Opportunity to supply him with; which shall be inserted in the next Year's LIST. By this Means they will not only render an essential Service to that particular Fair they are acquainted with, but likewise to the Community in general.

An

An ABSTRACT of all the Acts of Parliament relating to FAIRS; being a Sure Guide for the Owners, Governors, &c. of FAIRS.

I. THE owner, governor, ruler, farmer, steward, bailiff, or chief keeper of every fair and market overt, are to appoint and limit out a certain and open place within the town, place, field, or circuit, where horses, mares, geldings, and colts, must be sold, and they must appoint one sufficient person or more to take toll, and keep the same place from ten of the clock before noon until sun-set of every day of the aforesaid fair or market, upon pain to lose for every default forty shillings. 2, 3, P. M. c. 7. Co. 2. Inst. f. 715.

II. And the toll gatherer, his deputy or deputies, are to take their due and lawful tolls for every horse, mare, &c. at the place and times aforesaid; and they are to have before them at the taking of the said toll, the parties to the bargain, exchange, gift, contract, or putting away of every such horse, mare, &c. and also the same horse, mare, &c. so sold, exchanged, or put away; and then the toll-gatherer must write in his book the name, surnames, and dwelling-places of all the said parties, and the colour, with one special mark at the least of the said horse, mare, &c. on pain to forfeit for every default forty shillings. 2, 3, P. M. c. 7. Co. 2. Inst. f. 715.

III. And the said toll gatherer is within one day after the fair, &c. to bring his book to the owner, governor, or ruler, &c. of the fair or market, who is then to cause a note to be made out of the same, of the true number of all the horses, mares, &c. sold at the said fair or market, to which note he must set his hand or mark, on pain of forty shillings: And if the toll-gatherer neglect to bring the book as aforesaid, he also forfeits forty shillings. 2, 3, P. M. c. 7. Co. 2. Inst. f. 715.

IV. Note, That where no toll is due, the book-keeper's fee for entering every contract, is one penny and no more. 2, 3, P. M. c. 7. Co. 2. Inst. f. 716.

V. Now, since the making of this statute 2, 3, P. & M. it is further provided by the 31 Eliz. That every seller or exchanger of any horse, mare, &c. in a fair or market, which is unknown to the toll-taker or book-keeper, must procure one credible person that is well known to the toll-taker or book-keeper, who is to vouch and testify his knowledge of the seller; and the toll taker or book-keeper is to enter both the names and surnames, mysteries and places of dwelling of the seller and voucher into his book, with the colour, mark, and price of the horse, mare, &c. so sold or exchanged; and he is to give the buyer, if he require it, a note in writing out of his book, concerning the contract subscribed with his hand, for which he is to have two-pence. 31 El. c. 12. Co. 2. Inst. f. 17 & 718.

VI. Every toll-taker or book-keeper that suffers a sale to pass without a voucher, unless he know the party of his own knowledge, as aforesaid, and every person making false testimony or avouchment in the behalf aforesaid; and every seller unknown to the toll-taker, not bringing a voucher, and causing the same to be entered as aforesaid, forfeits five pounds, one moiety thereof to the king, and the other to the prosecutor; and also the sale of such horse, mare, &c. to be void. 21 El. c. 12. Co. 2. Inst. f. 718.

VII. And note, That though an horse, mare, &c. be at the sale used in all the points aforesaid, with vouchers, &c. yet the right owner, or his administrators, tors, may redeem a stolen horse, if they claim him within six months after the stealing, at the parish or corporation where they shall find him, and make proof within forty days after, by two sufficient witnesses, before the next justice of peace of the county, or before the head officer in a corporation, that the horse was theirs, and repay to the buyer such price for the horse, as the same buyer shall upon his oath before such justice or officer testify he paid for him. 31 El. c. 12. Co. 2. Inst. f. 718.

VIII. And if a stolen horse be not sold in fair or market, according to the rules aforesaid, then such sale does not alter the property of the right owner, but he may seize or replevy him wheresoever he finds him. 31 El. c. 12. Co. 2. Inst. f. 718.

IX. By the statute 22 Car. 2. c. 8. There shall be no bushel but the Winchester bushel, containing eight gallons; and none shall sell by other measure, on pain of forty shillings.

X. If the clerk of the market of the king's house, or others authorized to mark or seal measures, being required, shall neglect or refuse to seal or mark any bushel, half bushel, or peck, duly gauged, he forfeits 5 l. for the first offence, and for every other offence 10 l. Or if king's clerk of the market of his house takes more than his fees; or if any other take above one penny for sealing a bushel, one halfpenny for the half bushel or peck, or more than one farthing for any lesser measure, he incurs the penalties in the statute 17 Car. 1.

XI. That at the charge of such persons who have the toll or profit of the market where no toll is taken, there shall be before 29th Sept 1670, one measure of brass provided and chained in the market-place, upon pain to forfeit 5 l. 22 Car. 2. c. 8.

XII. By the statute of 22 & 23 Car. 2. it is further provided, That whosoever shall sell or buy any corn or salt by the bag, or without measuring, being thereunto required, or in any other manner than as by the

the statute 22 Car. 2, c. 8. is directed, and without shaking the measure by the buyer, shall forfeit, besides the penalty in the former act, all the corn and salt, or the value thereof, to the person or persons complaining. 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 12.

XIII. Upon complaint to one or more justices of peace, the proof shall lie upon the defendant to make appear, by oath of one or more witnesses, that he or they did sell or buy according to this and the said former act; wherein if he fail, he shall forfeit as by this act directed, to be levied by distress and sale of goods, by warrant under the hand and seal of one or more justices, before whom such conviction shall be. The penalties to be distributed, one half to the poor of the parish where the offence shall be committed, the other to the informer. 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 12.
